In honor of the memory of our parents and grandparents

Alex and Agnes Lowinger ז"ל

ישראל חיים בן נחום הלוי ז"ל

שרה בת יהודה לייב ע"ה who dedicated their lives to their family, friends, and community.

Our parents/grandparents are symbols of relentless courage, strength and faith.

When the fires of the Shoah burnt uncontrollably around them, they remained strong in their conviction than when they would arise from the ashes, the greatness of Torah and yiddishkeit would serve and eventually illuminate the world.

May their legacy continue to be our inspiration.

Dear Mommy and Daddy,

Growing up our favorite joke was to add an "x" to your license plate. We joked about all the time you spent at your "real" job at the shul. But you have the last laugh as all of your children have followed in your footsteps helping and building their shuls, involved in their communities. It's your true dedication and commitment that has taught us what it means to follow a Rav and how to be involved in a Shul. Mommy and Daddy we all saw how you always made going to Shul a priority and we loved sitting next to you, watching you daven. Even in your "retirement", your dedication to your shul and community remains as strong as ever. We know that your incredible devotion stems even deeper, sourced from Bobby and Zaidy Englander (o"h) and Bobby and Zaidy Silver (o"h). They continue to be guiding lights in our lives, helping us lead the next generation in dedication to Torah and Mitzvos while remaining connected and rooted to our heritage. Your complete dedication to your own parents still continues to be a source of inspiration to us. You are amazing parents and parents in-law (yes you were by far voted the favorites by your son-in-law and daughter-in-law) we love you and are so proud to be your children. Words alone could never express our true love and hakaras hatov for all you have done. May you continue to show us the way for many years to come, until at least 120, and be blessed by Hakadosh Boruch Hu with good health, and much Yiddish nachas from all your children and grandchildren.

With everlasting love and appreciation,

Bobby

Thank you for always giving us exactly what we need
You listen carefully to all we say, yes indeed.
Whether it's meatballs for Yaakov, and for Perel, tongue & lox
For Perri and Rivky it's stuffed cabbage that rocks
For Shoshana you make plain chicken and Nochi eats
whatever is his mood,
And Yuda will eat anything you make, as long as it is food.
We like hearing stories, playing games with you too
But we especially love skyping and sharing our day with you.
Listening and shmoozing, letting us play with your hair,
We cherish all the time that we share.

Zaidy

We look forward to our special time with you,
Whether it's dollar stores, slurpees and Berrylicious too.
You make sure each of us feel special, in our very own way
Taking the time out, making sure we're okay.
We love you both so much that words cannot even say
How lucky we are to have you, each and every day.

Love your einekels,

Yaakov, Perri, Perel and Shoshana Rivky, Nochi and little Yehuda
